To whom it may concern,

This letter is to confirm that the proposed e-commerce business will have no impact on the local fire district.

The nature of the operation does not involve increased public traffic, hazardous materials, or any activities that would place additional demand on fire protection services. The business will operate in a manner consistent with existing safety standards and regulations, and no changes are anticipated that would affect emergency response requirements.

Based on these factors, it is our understanding that the proposed e-commerce activity will not create any additional burden or impact on the fire district.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

George Martin
Chief
Adrian Rural Fire Protection District
